QUESTIONS 21-23. Refer to the following passage.

Noura had had enough of the city. She could not stand the noisy traffic, the smoggy air, the tall buildings, and the crowded sidewalks near her apartment. She needed to get away! So she called up her cousin, Mo, who lived alone in a mountain village, and asked if she could stay with him for three days. "Of course!" said Mo. "Come on over." So Noura packed her bags and set off for Mo's. As soon as Noura got to Mo's house, she noticed something amazing. "It is so quiet!" she said. But that night, Noura began to hear a loud sound. At first, she thought it was a dog. But then she realized: wolves! It started with one wolf. Then there was a chorus. After a sleepless night with a pillow over her head, Noura headed right back to the familiar noise of the city.

21. Why did Noura visit Mo?

- (A) She missed him.
- (B) She needed his car.
- (C) She was tired of the city.

QUESTIONS 24-26. Refer to the following passage.

Listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site, the Wieliczka Salt Mine in Poland opened in the 13th century. Since the mid-1990s it has no longer been a working mine due to lower salt prices globally. Instead, the Wieliczka Salt Mine is like an art-filled historical site lit by romantic lamps. It has a full cathedral in it, with statues and prayer places made out of salt that were carved by the miners who worked there. One of the most fascinating things about the mine is that it contains a giant lamp made of rock salt. The mine is huge. It is very deep (over 327 meters below the ground in its deepest area). And it is extremely long: not 100 kilometers, or even 200 kilometers, but an astounding 287 kilometers!

24. Which of the following is NOT true about the mine?

- (A) It is located in Poland.
- (B) It opened in the 1200s.
- (C) It is a working salt mine.
- (D) It is a world heritage site.

25. How deep is the mine?

- (A) less than 100 meters
- (B) 200 kilometers
- (C) 287 kilometers
- (D) 327 meters

26. What does the author find particularly interesting about the mine?

- (A) its age
- (B) its miners
- (C) its statues
- (D) its big lamp
