Script

M How is it going with your speaking class?

W I'm doing my best, but I'm afraid I'm not making much progress.

M What do you mean?

W Well, I don't have enough chances to speak English outside of class. What do you think I should do?

M I think you should do a language exchange.

W A language exchange? What's that?

M You teach someone Korean, and you learn English from that person.

W Oh, that's a cool way to learn a language. Thanks for the tip.

2. Listen. What does the girl think?

Language and _____ are closely related.

Script

W What foreign language class are you going to take next year?

M I haven't decided yet. Would you recommend one, please?

W Well, it depends. What are you going to do with the language you'll learn?

M I'd like to travel to South America after I graduate.

W What about Spanish, then? In South America, Spanish is spoken almost everywhere.

M Really? What do you think I should do before taking a Spanish class?

W It'd be useful to do some reading about South American countries and their cultures.

M Is culture important in learning languages?

W Of course. They say language is a mirror of culture.
