

A Motto for Your Life

Hajin

Mr. Cole

In English class, Mr. Cole wrote a sentence on the board,
"No sweat, no sweet."

What does it mean, Mr. Cole?

It means "If you don't work hard, you can't achieve your goal." It's my motto.
It helps me lead a good life.

What about "Smile, smile, smile"?

That's not bad. But how about "Good to begin well, better to end well"?

What does that mean?

It means "It's very important to finish your work well."

10•

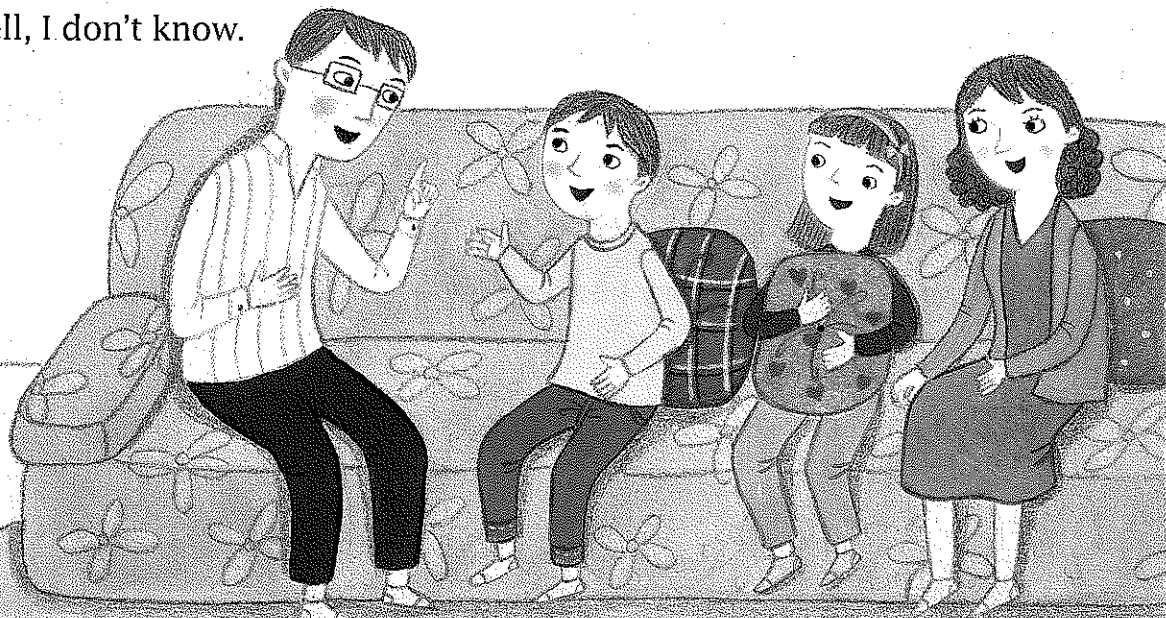

That's good. I think I need that motto. I often give up in the middle of doing something.

How about you, Hajin? Do you like it, too?

Well, I don't know.

Quiz

Who often gives up in the middle of doing something?

Words

give up 포기하다 in the middle of ...하는 도중에, ... 한가운데에

I have an idea. "The early bird catches the worm." How about that saying?

I have heard it before. It means "Be diligent, and you will succeed."

That's right. It was your grandfather's motto. He was a diligent farmer.

Which one do you like best?

It's difficult for me to choose one. All of them sound great.

What is the most important thing in life to you? Take your time to think about it.

You'll find a motto.

Okay. I'll think about it more. Thanks.

Some people have mottos, and others don't. But many great people in history had their own mottos and lived by them. Do you have a motto? If not, why don't you make one?
