Long ago, an honest merchant lived in Genoa, Italy. His name was Antonio. One day, he filled his ship with goods and visited a faraway island.

☒ 1 One night, Antonio had dinner with the island's queen at her palace. When dinner was served, rats appeared, and some servants chased them away with sticks.

☐ Back in Italy, Antonio told his friends about his good fortune. Luigi, the richest merchant in Genoa, heard the story and was jealous.

☐ Luigi packed his ship with wonderful paintings and other works of art. He took the gifts to the island. When the queen heard about Luigi, she invited him to her palace for dinner. Luigi presented the queen with all his gifts, and the queen thanked him again and again.

☐ Luigi realized that, in the queen's mind, the kitten was worth far more than all the jewels in the world. He tried to look pleased with the gift. He knew that was the right thing to do.

☐ After a while, the servant returned with a box, and the queen presented it to Luigi. When Luigi opened the box, he was speechless.

☐ The merchant brought two cats from his ship and let them run free. "What amazing animals!" cried the queen when she saw all the rats run away. She gave Antonio a chest that was filled with jewels.

☐ There was a kitten in the box. "In return for the wonderful gifts you gave us, we want to give you what is most valuable to us," said the queen.

Luigi did not return home a richer man. But he was surely a wiser one.
